

2. Memorable close/clincher (Tie it all back to your intro)

Name: Sam Worden
Period: English ①

Bag Speech Outline

Introduction

Specific Purpose: (The purpose of this speech is to...)

1. Attention Getter

I'm kind of obsessive compulsive, but as you are about to see, my obsessions have changed throughout the years...

Body #1

1. First main point (How does your bag represent you? Explain slogan, decorations)

Trumpet Case - 1st passion - explain history of trumpet

2. First object (How does it represent you?)

Written - blog post - shows transition from trumpet to acting to... something else?

3. Explain further (Use examples, illustrations, tell a story, etc.)

read the post

Transition:

The thing I found was photography

Body #2

1. Second object (How does it represent you?)

Old photo portfolio next thing I found - 3 months later

2. Explain further (Use examples, illustrations, tell a story, etc.)

By that Fall, I was back in NYC, advertising as a photog

Transition:

~~I've traced my more serious hobbies, but videogames~~
These days it's all digital, though...

Body #3

1. Third object (How does it represent you?)

Social - Worden Photo Facebook
The new face of my biggest hobby

2. Explain further (Use examples, illustrations, tell a story, etc.)

Talk about Weddings, and most recent session

Transition: Covered the serious stuff - let's go back in time a bit

Body #4

1. Fourth object (How does it represent you?)

Wiimote big need since the 80's

2. Explain further (Use examples, illustrations, tell a story, etc.)

Smash Bros and the meaning of life

Transition: so, that's me minus the English Teacher

Body #5

1. Fifth object (How does it represent you?)

2. Explain further (Use examples, illustrations, tell a story, etc.)

Transition:

Conclusion

1. Brief summary of main points (objects!)

I have jumped around a lot from VG to trumpet to acting to photography, and now as an English teacher I get to do it all! Except the trumpet

